

Investment Analyst

Location: Massachusetts, Waltham

River and Mercantile Solutions is the institutional investment and risk-management consulting business within the River and Mercantile Group PLC (www.riverandmercantile.com and www.riverandmercantile.us). The firm provides investment advice, actuarial services, risk management and governance to defined benefit pension plans, defined contribution plans, endowments and foundations, and insurance companies. The firm was founded in 2001 and we have grown to over 200 professionals today, making us one of the fastest growing investment advisors in the world.

The US office of River and Mercantile Solutions (located in Waltham, MA) is currently seeking an Investment Analyst to provide support to our consulting, investment advisory, and trading efforts. In addition to ad hoc investment related projects, the Analyst will also be required to prepare client reports, perform account reconciliations, gather investment data, and provide trading/settlement assistance. This role is the first step on an institutional investment advisory career-track with significant upside in job scope and responsibility.
